ATTEMPTED SCICIDE OF A FORMER ALEXAN DRIAN .- A letter from Frederick, Md., to the Baltimora Suo, says:

"Mr. Wm. M. Markell, a young attendey, and a m of the late Frederic's Markell, dry goods merchant, of this city, shot himself yesterdey at the residence of Mrs. James H. Besant, on Court struct where he and his mother were bearding, with the intention, it is generally halleved, of committing suicide, on eccount of a disappointment he experienced a short while before. The ball from a 32 calibre Smith & Wessen revolver, ball from a 32 calibre Smith & Wessen revolver, took effect in the left breast, and, passing downward through his body, it is thought came out over the left hip. After discharging the revolver he fell into the arms of Mr. Smith, journal cirk of the House of Regresentatives who is also boarding at the house, and who kappened to enter the door at the time of the report. Mr. Smith had just strived from Washington and celled at Mrs. Besen's for his little daughter, who had been visiting here. Markell. Upon entering the hall he observed young Market coming down the stairway, and when near the bot ing down the stairway, and when near the bot tom he saw him deliberately draw a revolver and sheet himself. Thaunfortunate man immediately began staggring and perceiving Smith running towards him cried out, On, Harry, 2276 and fell into his arm. From what can be learned the rath set was committed in a fit of dayression resulting from the non-respression of his affections. The said affect has produced quite assession here. Harkell is lying very law to-night and is not expected to live until morning. Mr. Markell is only about 23 years of age, and reachtly graduated with honor at the Columbian Law University, Washington, D.C."

"THEY ALL DO IT."-The great apostle in his famous epistle to the Romans exposes that list winter a self constituted preacher from a reighboring city was in the habit nearly every tunday evening of repairing to the foot of Kirg I linday evening of repairing to the foot of Air greet with three or four dupes and ventilating his pent-up spiece on all the ministers of God indiscriminately, charging them with being imposters, ignis fatuul of being clothed in purple and fine linen, faring numpthously and seeing a good time generally. The cause of the wayfarer of this world used to be particularly espoused, tistures of ideal ministers painted, how the true carrents of the Mort Bigh, would wade in rend servants of the Most Bigh would wade in mud and stand in rain or any other weather in order to preach, &c. &c. After all such ravings it may surprise some of his former hosrers when it is stated that on resterday evening, while many tired and exhausted workmen (conscious, how-ver, of having corried out the Divine mandate of earning their own brend) were winding along mes, this medern Dictrephes, well thired and snugly enfected in a fine two horse carriage, apparently as devoid of care or anxiety as a tom cat under a stove, was being driven through our streets at a rapid rate. It was the opinion expressed by many that the work was just commercing in carpest and that many would yet be saved ere the meetings closed. A pleasant feature of the mee ing was the singing by Miss Bettie Keess of "Are your windows open toward Jerusalem."
